

Workers' State of Helasia
Republican Advisory Committee
Special Decision #02 (SD02-A'A'2019)

Title: Legislative Powers to the Ministers and the Premier.

The Republican Advisory Committee, bearing in mind the necessity of direct action in the upcoming weeks in order to combat the inactivity in our state, decides the following:

Article 1: The Ministers have absolute legislative powers. The role of the RAC is to Advise them towards a correct direction through proposals.

Article 2: Every legislative special decision made by any Minister shall have the approval of the Premier.

Article 3: The Premier has the right to veto any special decision.

Article 4: The Premier has the absolute right to sign legislative special decisions. These special decisions however, can be vetoed by the Vice-Premier.

Article 5: The effect of this law (in total) shall cease after the first elections since the Revolution of 30 July 2019.

Workers' State of Helasia
Republican Advisory Committee
Special Decision #02 (SD02-A'A'2019)

Details of the RAC session:

note: after the discussion, mr. Papadojever from the NeoEniakist Union Party left the room. As a result he voted through a letter. The Chairwoman mrs. Wäest left the room since the beginning of the conversation.

The letter of mr. Papadojever was not considered a valid vote, since it was not signed. Mr. Papadojever, in his letter claims that if he was in the room he would vote for "NO".

Political Party	Yes/No/Abstain	Number of Votes
Party of Elasian Communists	Yes	6
Progressive Productivists	Yes	7
Neo-Eniakist U.P.	Abstain	0 (2 abstained)
Total	YES	13